You help to sustain the legacy of Prince George’s County, MD as a thriving hub for African American determination and upward mobility, through cultural arts programs, public history initiatives, archives and collections, family and adult education, and exhibitions that share our stories. Your membership, means you are a friend of the organization, vested and value. We hope you will continue aiding in the positive impact we are making in our community.

You are appreciated by all of PGAAMCC!

Our 10th Anniversary kickoff theme ‘The Story Continues’ means we have many chapters yet to write as we envision the future of our museum. Wish us a happy birthday; donate generously, attend our happenings, and shape the vision to help author the next chapter of our story at PGAAMCC.

Arts & Culture

As the heart of the Gateway Arts District, we believe that we have an obligation to the community to promote collaboration, engage unlikely allies in dialogue and encourage participation in the creative process. We recognize the diversity of experience within the African American community and aim to reflect the broad spectrum of social and cultural activities of this community.

Education

Our education programs positively impacts the socio-economic health of children by providing a fuller, more complex narrative and image about the African American experience and community. We currently serve 3,107 students at 74 schools annually.

History

We are recognized nationally and internationally for its innovative approach to the documentation, interpretation, preservation, and presentation of local and regional African American history.
